In all diseases that affect humanity there is ome weak link in the chain of health, some has that is the seat of the trouble. It may be the lesser, it may be the stomach: perhaps it is the beard, of health, and he had the consecution of the leaflers, must likely it is the blood. Burdock till had little some traight to that spot, strengthens the weak but in the chain, it moves the cause of the officers, and restores health, because it acts with cleansing force and curative power upon the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and blood.

With good red blood health is a ured, without it disease is certain to come and Burdock.
